The Thunder Bay Regional Health Research Institute (TBRHRI) - an independent, not-for-profit corporation - is the research arm of the Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Centre (TBRHSC). Research, innovation and learning are driven by the needs of our patients, our staff, and our communities.

In conjunction with the Northern Ontario Heritage Fund Corporation (NOHFC), we are currently seeking candidates for the following position:

Clinical Research Services Project Assistant Internship – NOHFC #7401556 (1 Year Contract)

The individual filling this position works closely with TBRHRI's Clinical Research Services Department. Their time will be devoted to the projects being created to support research activities at the TBRHSC and TBRHRI. Specifically, the Intern will assist with the planning, development and implementation of a permission to contact (PtC) for research at the TBRHSC.

The ideal candidate is highly dedicated and organized, with the ability to multitask in a fast-paced, interdisciplinary environment. Exceptional organizational and communication skills (oral and written), are necessary. An individual with a general understanding of hospital based health research, coupled with a university degree in science or business is preferred.

This opportunity is proudly supported by Northern Ontario Heritage Fund Corporation and is funded through the Workforce Development Program. Eligibility requirements of the program can be found here:
